

ST JOHN THE BAPTIST
SERVING
COLEY AND NORWOOD GREEN

War Memorial 1914/18

ANDREWS, MAYNARD PERCY M.A.

Captain

4th Battalion, Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regiment

Killed in action 14th August 1915, being hit in the head by rifle-fire when leading a rescue party carrying wounded men. Members of his Company were wounded when a dug-out only 30 yards from the enemy front-line was hit by trench-mortar fire, burying the occupants. The relief party found the main front-line, where the casualties were, was too narrow for the wounded men to be evacuated successfully. Capt. Andrews led them 'over the top' in an attempt quickly to reach a communication trench. His party came under fire and he was one of a number of casualties. Mentioned in Despatches 1st Jan 1916.

M.P. Andrews was educated at Oriel Coll., Oxford and also studied at the Universities of Jena and the Sorbonne. From 1911 until his enlistment he was Headmaster of Hipperholme G.S., where he is commemorated by a head-and-shoulders carving on the plaque in the School Hall and by the War Memorial Gate.

BOOTH, WILLIAM STANELY

2/Lieut.

4th Battalion, Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regiment

Killed in action 8th July 1916, aged 26, by shell fire when making his way up to the front-line during the early stages of the Battle of the Somme. W.S. Booth was son of a Wesleyan Minister from Grantham who spent two years at the Westminster Wesleyan Training College taking a London Inter. B.A. Prior to his enlistment he had been Classics Master at Hipperholme G.S., where he appears on the War Memorial

COLLIER, VICTOR

Lieut.

Prior to enlistment also an assistant-master at Hipperholme G. S. and also commemorated there.

JOLLEY, JOHN ANDREW BENJAMIN

Lieut.

9th Battalion, Lincolnshire Regiment

Killed in action in France 16th October 1915, aged 20. Commissioned in the 9th Batt. he was attached to the 5th Lincolnshires at the time of his death. Prior to commissioning he served as acting-sergeant with the Public Schools & University Corps of the Royal Fusiliers.

J.A.B. Jolley was younger son of J.T. Jolley M.A., Maths Master at Heath G.S. He was an Exhibitioner in Classics at St. Catherine's Hall, Cambridge in 1914, but instead of taking his place at the opening of Michaelmas Term he enlisted in the Royal Fusiliers. He is also on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

STOCKS, MICHAEL GEORGE

Lieut.

1st and 2nd Battalions, Grenadier Guards

Killed in action near Ypres 16th November 1914, aged 21. He saw action throughout the early months of the war at Mons, Landrecies, the Marne and the Aisne. He was among the first casualties from the parish.

M. G. Stocks was educated at Eton and Sandhurst and was grandson of the local Crimean War hero, Major Michael Stocks of Upper Shibden Hall, the surviving ranking officer in his regiment at the Battle of Balaclava.

ANDERTON, JAKES WILLIAM

Pte. 40224

West Yorkshire Regt

Killed in action at Cambria 20th Nov. 1917, aged 32, whilst serving as a Lewis-gunner. He is buried at Havrincourt Military Cemetery, and is also mentioned on the War memorial at St. Matthew's, Northowram.

His home was 28 Towngate, Southowram.

BOLAND, PATRICK J.

Killed in action on the night of 2nd Dec. 1915, somewhere in France, aged 23. Private Boland who lived at 10 Tan House Hill, Hipperholme, was a member of the Territorial Army, and as such was part of the first large organised draft of men to leave to serve overseas, once the professional army had left to form the B. B. F. in August 1914

BROADBENT, G.

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt.

Reported missing in action 23rd June 1917. Very little was reported in the local press. In the official casualty lists for 11th Dec. 1917 he was listed as wounded, but the next day was officially declared killed in action, presumably on the date in June. From Hipperholme.

BULKER, TOM.

Pte.

A message from his C.O. to the Rev, Jowett reported that had been wounded in Palestine and invalided home from Alexandria on 12th Jan. 1918. Died 24th Dec. 1918, aged 25.

BROOK, JOSEPH LUMB

Pte

Royal Artillery

Died 24th December 1918, aged 25. Gnr. Brook was on his way home for 14 days Christmas leave from France when he fell a victim of the Spanish influenza which was raging throughout Europe at the time. He was admitted to Hoyland Common Hospital, Barnsley, where he died of pneumonia on Christmas Eve. He was buried at Lightcliffe, and is also on the War Memorials there and at Norwood Green

BULMAN, THOMAS

No military record available. He died on 25th May 1919, aged 35, and was buried in his Father's grave (No. 625) on the 28th.

BALMFORTH, SAM

L/Cpl.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Reported missing in action 25th April 1917, he was one of the thousands whose ultimate fate was never known. His mother made an appeal for information in the Halifax Courier of 15th Jan. 1918, but nothing was forthcoming. Twelve calendar months after his being posted missing, the War Office presumed him killed. He lived at 1, Station View, Hipperholme and is also on the Lightcliffe Parish Church War Memorial.

CHARNOCK, E.

Rifleman

Rifle Brigade

Killed in action, 29th August 1918, aged 32.

CRACKNELL, ROBERT MUGGINE

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's V. R. Regt.

Died of wounds 8 th August 1918, aged 22, somewhere in France. Lived Spring Hall Lodge, Stone Chair.

CLAYTON, JOHN WILLIAM

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt.

Reported missing, believed killed 3rd May 1917, possibly aged 23. He lived at 7, Shelf Hall Lane.

COLLINGE, WILLIAM F.

Pte.

King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry

Died of wounds 2nd Oct. 1918, aged 18 years and 7 months, at Number 6 Casualty Clearing Station in France having received severe shrapnel wounds in his back. He lived at Lower Winter Edge Farm, Hipperholme and was said to have been connected with St. Hilda's Church Halifax.

COLLINS, SAM D.

Pte.

East Surrey Regiment

Killed in action 3rd May 1917, aged 27.

Pte. Collins had been apprenticed to Mr. L. Broadley, barber of Hipperholme.

CROWTHER, G. RAYMOND

Pte.

2/4 Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt. (62nd Div. )

Reported wounded and missing 26th Nov. 1917, aged 23, he was a member of a signalling party which came under shell fire in Boulon Wood in the battle of Cambrai. Only his pay-book was ever found.

As a member of the Territorial Army he was called to the colours in Oct.1914, only the third man in Hipperholme to enlist. He lived at 5, Springfield, Hipperholme and is on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

DAW, THOMAS

Cpl.

Coldstream Guards

Killed in action 12th Feb. 1915 at the First Battle of Ypres. First reported as captured by the enemy, but his status as prisoner-of-war was never confirmed. As late as 19th Oct. 1918 he was officially reported killed in action in Feb. 1915. His home was Brooke's Bldgs., Hipperholme and he was a regular soldier who enlisted at 17 and had seven years' service when lost. He was one of six brothers serving during the war. He is on Lightcliffe Church Memorial

FLETCHER, ZEPHANIAH

Zephaniah Fletcher was honoured as among the fallen at a meeting of the Northowram Rechabite Tent at Ebenezer Sunday School on Saturday 10th May 1919. He was listed with Ambler Woodhead, who also appears on the War Memorial. Fletcher is also on the Bethel Chapel War Memorial.

GREENWOOD, HARRY

Pte.

*Recorded as dead in parish news in the local press 6th Feb. 1917.
On Norwood Green War memorial.*

GREENWOOD, V. (VIRGIL ?)

Pte.

West Yorkshire Regt.

Reported in hospital in Liverpool, wounded in the shoulder with shrapnel (Halifax Courier 13th Sep. 1918). However there is no record of his death, nor any positive identification with this parish.

HALSTEAD, WILLIAM Killed in action July 1917.

Commemorated on Norwood Green War memorial and his parents' gravestone (No. 806)

HITCHEN, AUSTIN

Sgt.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Sergeant Hitchen was first reported wounded 16th Sept. 1916, but he did not die until 6th Feb. 1917. He was formerly Secretary of Norwood Green Cricket Club, and was commemorated on the War Memorial there.

ELSWORTH, GEORGE H.

Pte. 31641

King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry

Died of wounds at Colchester Military Hospital 14th Sep. 1917, aged 32, buried at- Coley on the 18th. (Grave No. 570) On Norwood Green War Memorial. Lived at Sowood House, Hipperholme.

HOLMES, F.

This is either the FRANK HOLMES mentioned on the Norwood Green War Memorial of whom we know no more, or;

FRED HOLMES Pte. 242399

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Killed in action 7th Aug. 1917, when his dug-out was hit by a shell.

He was a Joiner by trade, and an ex-pupil of Shelf Council School.

He appears on the Wade House Primitive Methodist Chapel War Memorial, now in Bethel Chapel, and on the memorial in St. Michael's Church, Shelf.

HOLDSWORTH, I. - No further information found.

INGHAM, JOHN WILLIAM

Pte. 85988

91st Training Reserve Battalion (Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.)

Died of pneumonia 3rd March 1917 at Ashington V.A.D. Hospital, aged 18 after only a few weeks' service. He was buried at Coley (No. 705) on the 7th. He lived at Upper Norcliffe, Southowram.

JACKSON, JOHN THEODORE

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's V. R. Regt.

Died at Clipstone Camp, Notts., 13th Oct. 1916, aged 23

JACKSON, EUGENE ALEXANDER WATKIN

Died of influenza at Catterick Camp 25th Feb. 1919, aged 28 (according to his epitaph, 30 in the Burial Register)

These two brothers, who lived at Coley Road, were both interred in the family grave, No. 599, which also contains their father H. Percy Jackson, woodcarver, who designed many local War Memorials.

JAGGER, ANGUS

Pte. 70524

87th Training Reserve Battalion

Died 11th Jan. 1919, aged 23, buried at Coley (Grave No. 673) on the 16th. Lived at Sowood House.

JAGGER, ERNEST

Pte.

Royal Irish Fusiliers

Killed in action 2nd Sep. 1918, having been first posted missing. Described as being 'brought up' at Coley Church Sunday School.

KIRKBRIGHT, NED

Pte. 2350

2/4 Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Killed in action 4th Nov. 1918, somewhere in France, aged 24.

He was a collier, and lived at 16 Gaythorne Tee., Woodhead, Hipperholme.

KENDALL, WILLIAM

On Norwood Green Cong. Church Institute Roll of Honour. Killed in action before 1918.

LONGBOTTOM, AXON

Pte.

Essex Regiment

A signaller, Pte. Longbottom was killed at Gaza, Palestine on 3rd Nov. 1917, aged 33. See No. 796.

Before the war he was organist of Coley Church and Secretary of the Sunday School. He was a representative of Leek Lea Mills, Odsal and a well-known figure on the Bradford Wool Exchange. His home was in Towngate, Hipperholme, but his name appears on the Shelf Parish Church memorial.

LUMB, SAMUEL

Pte.

Sherwood Foresters

Died in hospital in the U.K. on 2nd Nov. 1917, aged 35, from sepsis resulting from a flesh wound in the thigh. He was buried at the Congregational Chapel, Luddendenfoot.

He was an ex-scholar of Rishworth G.S. and had been articled to a solicitor, Messrs Longbottom A Sons of Halifax. He worked for G. Maxwell Riley of Halifax, and had been a member of Lightcliffe Masonic Lodge Lived Waverley Tee., Hipperholme. He is also on Lightcliffe War Memorial

MARTIN, FRANK

Pte

'C' Coy. Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt

Missing presumed killed in action 3rd May 1917, aged 21.

Formerly an overlooker at Joseph Wood & Sons, Hipperholme. He attended Coley Church & Sunday School and lived at 16 West End, Hipperholme.

MARTIN, J L

Cpl

Gordon Highlanders

Killed in action between 9th and 11th April 1917.

Brother of Frank, he also was a member of Coley Church, sang in the choir and taught in the Sunday school.

Mitchell, William

Pte

Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt.

Missing, believed killed, 4th Jul. 1916 at the Battle of the Somme, aged 19. His death was not confirmed until 3rd Feb. 1917.

In civilian life he was employed at Brooke's brickworks, Hipperholme. He lived at 20 Cross Lane, Stone Chair and was a member of the Tabernacle Church there.

MANGER, DAVID

**?

Northumberland 1 and Fusiliers

Died of wounds to the abdomen 17th June 1917, aged 20.

He lived at 20 Marquis Street, Halifax. His connection with this parish was that his grandmother lived at Throstle Nest Farm, Hipperholme.

MUFFS NORMAN

Pte. 2772

1/4 Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Severely wounded in the abdomen, he was treated at the 3rd West Riding Field Ambulance of the 49th Div., but died the following day, 19th Oct. 1915. He was 22 years old, and is buried in the Lyssenthoek British Cemetery near Poperinghe, Belgium. His home was in Brookeville Ave., Hipperholme. He is also on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

MILTON, HENRI (HARRY)

L/Cpl.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Killed in action, when his dug-out in Belgium was hit by a shell on 5th Aug. 1917 f Aged 33.

He was one of four brothers who all served in France. His younger brother was also a casualty, see below. He lived at 10 West End Place, Hipperholme and worked at Brooke's, Hipperholme. He enlisted two days after the outbreak of war.

MILTON, FRED

Cpl.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt,

Died from appendicitis at Number 6 Stationary Hospital in France on 21st Jan.

1917, aged 28. His lived with his parents at 4 Gaythorne Terrace., Hipperholme.

NAYLOR, ARTHUR

Pte.

Loyal North Lancashire Regt.

Wounded on 25th Oct. 1917, he died at No. 4 General Hospital in France on December 11th. He lived at 3, Halifax Road, Hipperholme and is on the Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

PUGH, CLEMENT

Cpl.

North Staffordshire Regt.

Died on 20th Oct. 1915, of wounds sustained in the Dardanelles.

Lived at Woodhead, Hipperholme. On Norwood Green War Memorial.

PICKLES, Harry

Pte.

Durham Light Infantry

Injured in leg in France 2 July 1917; 'improving' in hospital in Glasgow. No details of death.

On Bethel Chapel War Memorial.

PICKLES, D. A. CYRIL

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Died 27 Apr. 1918, aged 19, in Salywedel Hospital, Germany, from wounds received in action. Only son of Mr and Mrs Wheatley Pickles of Norwood Green. He made the Norwood Green Cong. Church Institute Roll of Honour in 1917 and appears on the village War Memorial.

RICHARDSON, TOM

**?

Probably 10693 Pte. Richardson T.R. , Sea forth Highlanders, who died of wounds 17th Nov. 1916. The War Of ice casualty lists give no address. At a meeting held at Norwood Green on 6th Feb. 1917, when the names of the local fallen were read out, Tom Richardson was mentioned; he is also mentioned on the War memorial there.

REEVES, TOM

Cpl.

1/4 Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Killed in action somewhere in France 10th April 1918, aged 23. He had previously been wounded in 1915 and returned to duty. He lived at Hill End, Norwood Green; where he attended Church and is on the War Memorial

RHODES, NORRIS

Gunner

9th Royal Field Artillery

Killed in action in Belgium, 29th Oct. 1917, aged 29. See No. 714.

Gnr. Rhodes was formerly a mineral water manufacturer, who had attended Sunday School at St. Matthew's Northowram. He lived at Whitehall Street, Hipperholme and his parents lived at 7, Back Clough. He is also on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial

RHODES, HERBERT

pte

South Staffordshire Regt.

Died, aged 31, on 19th April 1917, of wounds received at Vimy Ridge. He is buried at Eastern Cemetery, Boulogne, and commemorated on So. 745.

He lived at Bramley Lane, Lightcliffe and worked for Brighthouse & Lightcliffe Laundry. Both he and his wife Louisa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutcliffe of Cinderhills were members of Coley Church and Sunday School. He also appears on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

RHODES, HAROLD Junior

Trooper

Possibly Pte. Harold" V. Rhodes, Yorkshire & Lancashire Regt. , who died of bayonet wounds received in France on Easter Monday, 9th April 1917.

He had previously served in the Yorkshire Dragoons as a Trooper.

His death is mentioned in St. Matthew's Magazine for May 1917. He is on the Memorial at St. Michael's, Shelf, where he live at Valley View.

SHARP, FRED

Pte.

South Wales Borderers

Killed in action 29th Jan. 1917. Pte. Sharp of Upper Lane, Northowram had originally joined the Royal Engineers and served with them until December 1916, when he was drafted, along with others, to meet a shortage of infantrymen.

SINGLETON, F.

Possibly either;

Pte. 12066

9th Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt. or, West Yorks. Regt

Wounded 12th Jan. 1916, Killed in action 4th Oct 1917

SCHOFIELD, HERBERT

Pte.

1/7 Gordon Highlanders

Pte. Schofield returned from New Orleans to enlist in 1915. He served first in a mounted unit training horses and mules in Bristol, and went with this unit to the Dardanelles. Later he joined the Cameron Highlanders and transferred to the Gordons. He was killed in action in France 7 th Jan. 1917, aged 27, commemorated on No. 501 and at Lightcliffe Church His parents later moved to 8, Whitehall, Hipperholme. In the Halifax Evening Courier for 15th Jan. 1918 a "tribute of love" was paid by Miss Clarissa Lister of 31, Woodside View, Halifax

SMALLWOOD, JAMES

Guardsman

Grenadier Guards

Killed in action 1st Aug. 1917, aged 32.

He lived and worked at Roydlands Farm, owned by his sister Mrs. Green.

He was also a taxi-cab proprietor, and was a member of Coley Church. He also appears on the War Memorial at Lightcliffe Church.

STOCKS, THOMAS Pte.
Gordon Highlanders
Killed in action 25th September 1916 on the Somme, aged 25.
He lived at 17, Park Place, Lightcliffe where he appears on the Church War Memorial. Previously he was a tram conductor with Halifax Corporation Transport, working on the Brighouse route.

STOCKS, HAROLD Pte. 26523
Durham Light Infantry
Confirmed, killed in action 9th April 1917, aged 22, having been previously posted as missing. He lived at 43, East Street, Lightcliffe and is on the Church War Memorial there.

SHUTTLEWORTH, ROBERT JOBS Pte.
Royal Army Ordnance Corps
On demob leave from Clipstone Camp, he contracted 'flu and died 14th Feb. 1919, aged 31. Buried at Coley on the 18th. (No. 670). For four years a member of Coley choir, he lived at 6 Marsh Lane, Southowram.

SPENCE, R.
Presumably the Harry R. Spence who appears on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

TOWN, WEST Pte. 4316
Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.
Killed in action on the Somme when his dug-out was hit by a shell, 3rd Jul. 1916, aged 23.
He lived at 15, Southfield Terr. , Hipperholme and was a former member of Coley Sunday School and Choir. The next entry is his brother

TOWN, ALBERT Pte.
10th West Yorkshire Regiment
Died of wounds in France 13th Oct. 1918, and was buried at Neuville British Cemetery, near Le Cateau. He lived at 4 Lane Ends, Shibden.

THOSEBY, ARTHUR Pte. 19439
Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.
Missing in action 23rd October 1916, aged 28. The War Office finally confirmed his death on 8th Aug. 1917.
In civilian life he had been a warper at Clough Mills, Shelf. A member of Coley Church and Sunday School he lived at Throstle Nest Farm, Coley.

THOMPSON, ERNEST WHARTON Cpl.
Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.
Killed in action near Marcoing, France, "just as he went over the top", 29th Sep. 1918, aged 21.
An ex-pupil of Hipperholme G.S.; with his father a surveyor to Hipperholme council. They were both Freemasons. He had enlisted in November 1914, and at the time of his death was awaiting a commission.

TIPLADY, RONALD Pte. 40237
King's Own Scottish Borderers, but also reported as West Yorkshire Regt. Wounded and missing 11th Jun. 1917, having been first reported simply wounded. On Norwood Green War Memorial.

TURNER, WILLIE
On Norwood Green War Memorial.

WHITAKER, FRED

Pte.

Duke of Wellington's W.R. Regt.

Wounded in France 11th Oct. 1917, he died at Wharnecliffe War Hospital, Sheffield shortly after, on the 31st. He lived at 28 Cross Lane, Stone Chair, was a greengrocer, and regularly attended the Tabernacle Church, Stone Chair. He is buried at Bethel Chapel, Shelf.

WILKINSON, HERMAN

**?

Middlesex Regiment " (transferred from 4th Duke of Wellington's Reserves) Wounded at Thiepval, 26th Sep. 1916, and killed on his way to a dressing station.

He lived at Trough Farm, Coley and was a former pupil of Hipperholme G.S He had entered gentleman's service at the age of 14 and risen to the position of butler, his name is on Norwood Green War Memorial.

WILKINSON, SAM

L/Cpl.

Army Cyclists' Corps

Killed 7th Sep. 1917, by a bomb falling on a tent he shared with three others, when sleeping out of the lines.

He lived at Tennyson Place, Hipperholme, had been a member of Coley Sunday School & Bible Class, and was assistant vergger.

WOOLER, JOHN

L/Sgt

Possibly the J. Wooler, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, recorded on a Roll of Honour by Shelf U.D.C., 24th April 1915. Named on Bethel Chapel and St. Michael's War Memorials.

WOOLER, NORMAN

Pte

He came from Shelf, as he is on the Wade House Prim. Meth. Chapel War Memorial (now at Bethel Chapel) as well as that in Shelf Parish Church

WAKEFIELD, PLATT

Pte. 80979

1/8 Durham Light Infantry

Missing in action 11th Apr. 1918, aged 19. Presumed dead 12th April 1919. He lived at 20, Lee's Buildings, Hipperholme and is commemorated on Lightcliffe Church War Memorial.

WELLS, ISAAC

Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt.

Killed in action, 7th June 1917, aged 19. Buried at Wood's Military Cemetery, Zillebeke, south-east of Ypres, Belgium.

He lived at Field Head Farm, Norwood Green and is on the War Memorial there. His name is also on the Cong. Church Institute Roll of Honour.

WELLS, GILBERT

Pte.

Killed in action at Bullecourt, 3rd May 1917, aged 38. Commemorated on his parents' gravestone; No. 723 and on Norwood Green War Memorial.

WOODHEAD, AMBLER

Pte., N.M.

2/4 Duke of Wellington's V.R. Regt.

Killed in action 30th Aug. 1918, aged 21, while serving as Coy. HQ Runner He died within minutes of being hit by shrapnel, which pierced his lung. In May 1918 he had been awarded the Military Medal for conspicuous bravery.

He lived at 7, The Hough, Stump Cross. An ex-choirboy at Coley Church, he belonged to Northowram Rechabite Tent. He attended St. Matthew's, Northowram, where he is also commemorated.

Other men who died in the war are buried in churchyard.

Harrison Herbert

Killed in action in France September 15th 1918 aged 42

Pickles Arnold

Pte

R.A.M.C

Cook Frederick William

R.S.M.

RFA Died on active service and is buried in Palestine

Medals awarded

Ambler Woodhouse - Military Medal for conspicuous bravery

Mentioned in dispatches

Captain Maynard Percy Andrews

